

CAR-GCCRA Charter

5 - point Charter:

1. Bring together key stakeholders in the Ayurveda fraternity as well as Allied sciences, representing - education, training, practice as well as research, on a common unified platform, in a periodic manner, to share, inform, collaborate and develop consensus regarding the subject of research in Ayurveda.
2. Lead the initiative for collaboratively providing clear, contemporary, and futuristic directions to research in Ayurveda.
3. Play a nodal role in facilitating - how accurately and appropriately we understand the subject of research in Ayurveda, to identify suitable research models and methods in Ayurveda, to help redirect and reorient Ayurveda fraternity about how, in which areas and with what tools research should be conducted in Ayurveda, in the future.
4. Outline and integrate key elements of globalization of Ayurveda - education, information dissemination, innovation, technology integration along with traditional wisdom, effective marketing, strong advocacy and cross-sector, interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary collaboration.
5. Create a steering committee that will drive 'Ayurveda for the Globe - Vision 2025'.

Proposed meeting schedule:

The CAR-GCCRA will meet every 3 months, starting February 2022.

Feb 20th, 8 PM IST - FIRST MEETING.

Proposed ADVISORS: Dr. Ashok Vaidya, Dr. Bhushan Patwardhan, Dr. Geetha Krishnan, Dr. Rammanohar, Dr. Rajesh Bhatkar, Dr. Pratibha Shah, Dr. Jeffrey White, Dr. Darshan Mehta, Dr. Bal Ram Singh, Dr. Abhimanyu Kumar, Dr. Tanuja Nesari

Steering Committee: Dr. Aakash Kembhavi, Dr. Asmita Wele, Dr. Kishor Patwardhan, Dr. Supriya Bhalerao, Dr. Ashwini Godbole, Dr. Ashwinikumar Raut, Dr. Vandana Baranwal, Dr. Meenakshi Gupta, Dr. Mahadevan Seetharaman, Dr. Anupama Kizhakkeveetil, Dr. Ram Rao, Dr. Dinesh Gywali, Dr. Bhavana Prasher